RESIGNATION OF COORDINATOR OF BARRIER-FREE DESIGN

Hank Beasley, has resigned from his position as Coordinator of Barrier-Free Design. Hank was extremely helpful to the College in our efforts to create a "barrier-free" environment. He worked closely with the Planning Office, Physical Plant, Student Special Services, and many other areas on campus.

Hank had a bad fall from his wheelchair and has had several operations in the last few months to correct problems that developed from the fall. Hank must have additional surgery on his back. Hopefully, some day soon he can return to help us with our endeavors.

ENERGY CONSERVATION TIPS

"If you own a house, consider placing a five foot high fence, or a row of 15 foot high evergreen trees, spaced ten feet apart on center, upwind of the corner of a house to protect it from winter winds. This action could result in a 30% reduction in infiltration of air and a 12% reduction in a heating bill can be realized. The windbreak should be approximately two times it's height away from the house. Reducing wind velocity from 15 to five mph will reduce air leakage of different types of windows from 70 to 80%."

SCHEDULE OF STAFF ORIENTATION PROGRAMS

Listed below is the schedule for Staff Orientation Programs:
March 20, 1978 4:00-6:30 p.m.
March 21, 1978 9:00-11:30 a.m.
March 23, 1978 9:00-11:30 a.m.
Meeting Place: The LOOK OF SOUND Exhibit Chapel Hall, Visitors Center.

Those not-so-new employees who have not been able to attend an orientation program are strongly urged to join. If interested, contact Consuelo Misa, ext. 581.

CUED SPEECH IN THE NEWS

Cued Speech is getting a lot of media coverage these days: January 31, article on the front page of the Washington Post, which has since been distributed by Associated Press to 400 newspapers; February 19, article in Parade Magazine (circulation 20 million); February 24, CBS Morning News (nationwide TV coverage); introduction-interviews for coverage in Pediatrics Magazine, and on the national educational FM network; March 8, interview with Voice of America taped for delayed broadcast to 10 English-speaking countries and broadcasts of translation in 24 other countries. For information on Cued Speech contact Mary Elsie Henegar, ext. 717.

CAPTIONED FILMS PRESENTED

The Publick Playhouse, a community theater in Bladensburg, has been presenting captioned films-mostly Disney cartoons and adventure classics-for about a month. The Saturday morning shows are free to the hearing-impaired, but donations are accepted to help defray administrative costs.

The movies, geared to children of elementary-school age, are captioned by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

So far the audiences have been small-about 20 to 30 people at each showing. But they're still getting the word out, and they hope to expand the program to include week-night showings of films for general family audiences.

For more information, call either the Playhouse box office at 277-1710 (voice) or TTY 699-9869.

THE MACKERAL TO BE INTERPRETED

The Folger Theatre will be presenting a new American play, interpreted for hearing impaired patrons, on April 29, at 2:30 p.m. For ticket information call the Folger Box Office, after noon each day, at 546-4000.

This lunch time meeting of the campus-wide Instructional Designers' Group will meet from 11:45 to 1:00 in the Gallaudet Room of the library. For more information call ext. 745.

DOROTHY MORRISON JACOBS, '55

Word has been received that Dorothy Jacobs, wife of Past GCAA President Leo Jacobs passed away March 12. Funeral services are scheduled for Friday. In lieu of flowers the family asks that contributions be sent to Julian Singleton, 900 Honister Lane, Concord, CA., 94515. At a later date the family will determine how the contributions will be used. Many will remember Leo Jacobs as the first recipient of the Dr. Doctor Chair in 1972-73.
